legends and musical themes

(17) Joe Williams

With his rich bass-baritone voice, 1993 Jazz Master Joe Williams (1918-1999) captured the passion and feeling of the blues like few others. The Grammy Award-winning Williams is best known for his ten years as a vocalist in the Count Basie Orchestra. His signature tune, Everyday I have the Blues, soared to the top of the R&B charts when it was first introduced with Basie. Joe remained active until the end of his life, "pickin the plums," as he put it, working the world over in small groups and with reincarnations of the Basie Band (NPR)
