

Monday 2 June 2014

12:04 All Night Programme

Including: 12:05 Music after Midnight; 12:30 At the Movies (RNZ); 1:05 Te Ahi Kaa (RNZ); 2:30 NZ Music Feature (RNZ); 3:05 A Short History of Olive Growing, by Katie Henderson (RNZ); 3:30 Health Check (BBC); 5:10 Down the List (RNZ)

6:12 The Return by Wanda Cowley

A visit home lays ghosts to rest (RNZ)

6:22 Introducing

6:50 Witness

A moment in history (BBC)

7:08 Tim Prebble

Justin Gregory's award-winning feature about sound artist Tim Prebble during the time he was Auckland Regional Parks Artist in Residence at Barr Cottage in the Waitakere Ranges (RNZ)

7:35 Worldwatch

8:10 Queen's Birthday

with Colin Peacock (RNZ)

12:12 Matinee Idle

Phil O'Brien and Simon Morris present an afternoon of alleged music and dubious entertainment, including:

3:04 Dave McArtney - Gutter Black: Trevor Reekie talks to Hello Sailor's Graham Brazier and Harry Lyon about life with - and without - Dave McArtney, as well as McArtney's posthumous autobiography Gutter Black - A Memoir (RNZ)

5:00 The World at 5

A roundup of today's news and sport

5:12 The Managers

Pia Sundhage (2 of 6, BBC)

7:06 Global Business (BBC)

7:30 Insight: An award-winning documentary programme (RNZ)

8:20 Windows on the World: International public radio features and documentaries

9:06 The Great Queen's Birthday Shemozzle by Judith Holloway

After reading a magazine article about a hairdresser who has won a royal look-alike competition, Her Majesty visits the woman and they secretly swap roles for a day. But neither is prepared for the attitudes of some of the people they have to deal with (RNZ)

10:00 The World at 10

A roundup of today's news and sport

10:30 What's the Word

London in Literature

11:06 Full Time Blues Radio

Previewing the 2014 edition of the Blues Music Awards with a rundown the complete list of nominees (6 of 12, PRX)