Tiritiri 25: Tiritiri Matangi means "buffeted by wind". These days the windy island just off Auckland is a bushy sanctuary to thousands of native birds. Some of them hadn't been seen in Auckland for 100 years while others had faced complete extinction. Twenty-five years ago the Tiritiri Matangi Supporters group was formed and since then members have helped replant well over half the island in native flora and helped DOC with funding to reintroduce native fauna. For Spectrum David Steemson visits Tiritiri to talk to the founders of the supporters group (RNZ)
