

A roundup of today's news and sport

10:30 What's The Word

Libraries (MLA)

11:06 The International Americana Music Show 2

(2 of 13, PRX)

Monday 27 October 2014

12:04 All Night Programme

Including: 12:05 Music after Midnight; 12:30 At the Movies (RNZ); 1:05 Te Ahi Kaa (RNZ); 2:30 NZ Music Feature (RNZ); 3:05 Labour Weekend, written and told by Sheba Williams (RNZ); 3:30 Health Check (BBC); 5:10 Dead Holidays 5:45 War Report (RNZ)

6:00 Breakfast with Stuart Keith

An early miscellany of music, stories and random thoughts

8:10 Labour Day Monday with Colin Peacock

News and views, conversations and diversions from home and overseas - for those having a hard-earned day off work - and those hard at work who'd like to be

12:12 Matinee Idle

Phil O'Brien and Simon Morris present an afternoon of alleged music and dubious entertainment, including:

3:04 You Don't Know Me: Cindy Walker's Legacy

Texas music historians and scholars talk about Cindy Walker's towering - albeit somewhat unknown - legacy on the American musical landscape (KUT)

5:00 The World at 5

A roundup of today's news and sport

5:12 Global Business (BBC)

6:06 2014 Jane Frame Memorial Lecture

Children's author and illustrator Gavin Bishop delivers the 2014 Janet Frame Memorial Lecture. For over 30 years, the lives of children and grown-up children have been shaped by his books. In this literary "state of the nation" address he focuses on the value and standing of illustrated books written for children (RNZ)

7:30 Insight

An award-winning documentary programme (RNZ)

8:20 Windows on the World

International public radio features and documentaries

10:00 The World at 10