5:30 The War in the Air

At the start of the war generals publicly stated their disdain for airplanes. As Canada's Minister of Militia put it, "If I want to see where the enemy is, I'll climb a tree". Before long, thousands of flimsy warplanes were in the sky. This programme draws on a large archive of eye witness testimony - over 200 interviews with veterans of WWI recorded by CBC radio half a century ago. The soldiers' stories give us rare and vivid accounts of what it was like to be a front line participant in this horrific conflict (CBC)

7:06 A War Requiem

The psychological problems of soldiers during and after World War One.
