David Knowles introduces the Memphis-based radio show with an international reputation for its location recordings of blues musicians live in concert

Beale Street Caravan features Paul Thorn who is from Tupelo Mississippi, and like Elvis, was heavily influenced by gospel music early on, but he likes to rock. He's reputed to be one of the best songwriters in the South and tells lots of stories about how his songs came to be, and there's a feeling that his father, in all senses of the word, is not far from his life. Paul Thorn was recorded aboard Delbert McClinton's Sandy Beaches Cruise out of Florida. (5 of 13, BSC)
