4:06 The Sunday Feature

Selfies in the Galleries: 'Selfie' was the 2014 word of the year, and people love taking selfies in front of artworks. But is it a crime to photograph someone else's work, and then send it into cyberspace unbeknownst to the artist? And are people really taking in the experience that art offers - or have they invented a new experience? Kim Hill chairs a panel called "Selfies in Galleries" to discuss these and other questions.
