Sushi Marriages

When a Sunni and a Shia Muslim in Britain tie the knot, this is sometimes jokingly referred to as a 'Sushi' marriage. Such marriages are not uncommon but the wars in Syria and Iraq have led many Muslims in Britain to identify more strongly with their own branch of Islam. Young people who fall in love across the divide face increasing resistance from their families and communities. Zubeida Malik meets three Sushi couples to find out how strongly the differences are playing themselves out within their marriages and families.(BBC)
