Glass Warfare

The number of female CEOs in New Zealand's top 50 listed companies is sitting at... zero. What's going on? Does the idea of 'smashing the glass ceiling' still reflect what modern society needs? And what does femininity look like in a space that's often structured for - and filled with - men? Some of Aotearoa's best leaders and thinkers - Theresa Gattung, Ranjna Patel, Anne Blackburn and Rob Campbell - tackle some tough questions, share battle stories, and discuss blueprints for the future (4 of 4, RNZ)
