Faith in Freedom: Maryam Rostampour and Marziyeh Amirizadeh

In the final episode of his trilogy of 'Faith in Freedom' series, John McCarthy, who was held hostage by Islamic radical groups in Lebanon, speaks to two Iranian women who risked torture in one of the world's most notorious prisons to spread the word of the Christian Bible. Maryam Rostampour and Marziyeh Amirizadeh were known as the 'dirty Christians' in Evin prison where they suffered horrendous conditions and witnessed daily abuse, but despite that, they carried on sharing the Gospel within the prison. They now live in the USA, and despite the daily horrors they witnessed at the prison, Maryam and Marziyeh they speak about Evin as a church - somewhere they were placed by God to spread the word. (BBC).
