

Monday 25 April 2022

12:04 All Night Programme

A selection of the best RNZ National interviews and features.

5:55 Dawn Service

Dawn Service live at Pukeahu National War Memorial Park with Mani Dunlop

7:10 NZ's WWII Aviators

Jude Dobson talks to a few of the handful of men left who flew with the RNZAF in WWII

8:08 Anzac Morning with Bryan Crump

11:00 ANZAC National Service with Mani Dunlop

12:10 Matinee Idle with Phil O'Brien and Simon Morris

5:15 The Oral History of Slice of Heaven

We hear from some of the personalities behind the song called New Zealand's unofficial anthem

6:15 Te Ahi Kaa Anzac Special

The late Sir Wira Gardiner talks about the book 'Ake Ake Kia Kaha E' B Company of the 28th Māori Battalion' and Justine Murray talks to her brother about their grandfather and the men of Ngai Tamarāwaho of Tauranga who served in B Company.

7:10 NZ's WWII Aviators

Jude Dobson talks to a few of the handful of men left who flew with the RNZAF in WWII
(rpt)

8:10 Brubeck Goes To War

This ANZAC Day we're going to recall American jazz legend Dave Brubeck in his early years - during the second World War.

11:04 Nashville Babylon

Mark Rogers offers the very best in Americana, alt country, folk soul and blues music (RNZ)