Underground Islam in Italy

Italy is home to the fourth largest Muslim population in Europe, but unlike Christianity and Judaism, Islam is not recognised in Italy and there are only eight officially recognised mosques. A recent government crackdown on the estimated 2,000 makeshift 'garage' mosques across Italy has led to mass protests. Helen Grady visits the officially recognised Great Mosque of Rome, Europe's largest mosque. Speaking to its Imam, he tells her that since February he is now being told he needs to preach his sermons in Italian even though no other religious group is made to do this. (BBC)
