Who are the far-right extremists?

Can understanding the roots of far-right extremism help us to tackle it? The terror attacks on Muslims worshipping in Christchurch have focused minds around the world on the threat from racist far-right extremists. The man responsible cited influences from the US and UK among others, and claimed to be motivated by white supremacist ideas. So, who are these extremists? What do they believe and why? And what role might politics and media play in planting the roots of extremism in society? In this edition of 'The Real Story' Ritula Shah is joined by a panel of experts to discuss the nature and challenge of far-right extremism. (BBC)
